

OPENS CHINESE-AMERICAN BANK CHAMBER NAMES NEW DIRECTORS

Washington, D. C., Feb. 21.—Dr. Paul Reubach, former American minister to China, was advised in a cablegram today from Peking that the Chinese-American bank had opened for business there and had received deposits in excess of $2,000,000 on the first day.

Youth's Phantom Hand Lands Him in Jail

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 21.—While watching a movie entitled, "The Spirit Hand," Mrs. Samuel Mark felt a phantom mitt steal xactly into a purse on her lap. Though aware that specks are hard to catch, Mrs. Mark grabbed the hand. The owner, a 12 year old youth, broke her clutch and danced over many honours in dashing from the theater. He was finally cornered in a restaurant, where he declared "the picture had made his hand at-well-minded."

H. W. Broadbent, Fabian Stolaroff, E. C. Hall, W. B. Brown, W. E. McMath and C. W. Harvey were elected directors of the chamber of commerce in Friday's election. Their election is for a period of three years. Mr. Broadbent led in the election with 403 ballots cast for him. Fabian Stolaroff was second with 294 votes. Mr. Hall received 248 votes, Mr. Brown, 246, Mr. McMath, 231, and Mr. Harvey, 249. Mr. McMath and Mr. Stolaroff are both members of the Ad Club and members of this club, who are also members of the chamber of commerce, voted in a body.

The six directors elected are to fill the vacancies made by the expiration of the terms of G. H. Ryan, G. A. Martin, J. W. Kirkpatrick, T. H. Rogers and Joseph A. Wright. The nine hold over directors of the chamber of commerce are C. N. Bassett, W. S. Cronquist, M. A. Warner, D. J. Hilsford, P. W. Norton, A. Schwartz, K. W. Kaysar, H. E. Christie and C. H. Frisley. The ten unsuccessful candidates and the votes they received are: W. B. Finch, 249; W. G. Rice, 232; Frank P. Jones, 202; Ed Sanders, 176.

Awarded Possession Of Adopted Son As Alimony

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 21.—Probably the most unusual alimony award ever granted here was given to Mrs. Quennie Nazario in the possession, as an alimony settlement, of her 14 year old adopted son, Nat Nazario, Jr., a vaudeville performer with an income of $1500 a week. The award was made as the result of Mrs. Nazario's divorce suit against Nat Nazario, Sr., also a vaudeville performer.

George W. Franklin, 159; Kuno Doerr, 141; George B. Evans, 124; E. A. Henning, 92; P. C. Thede, 13; Walter H. Scott, 57. E. C. Davis and C. H. Leavell withdrew from the race. The judges of the election were H. L. Birney, G. W. Thurston, D. C. Crowell and T. A. Thurston. The first meeting of the new board will be held Monday afternoon.

WESTERN PIONEER DIES AT 106. Bowling, Wyo., Feb. 21.—After making several fortunes and losing them in the "building of the great west," James ("Bud") Sherrard, aged 106, is dead at the county poor farm here. Sherrard was born in Ohio in 1813 and is believed to have been the oldest white man in Wyoming. He started west in 1873 and took part in the settlement of two states—Nebraska, Colorado and Wyoming.

Yankee Reporters Too Fast for Son of Lloyd George

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 21.—Traditions of Fleet Street journalism were brought into plain American reporting by Maj. Lloyd George, son of England's premier, during his recent visit here.

"You're much too speedy for me, you American reporters," he said to a flock of news hounds seeking interviews. "Heavily, I shall have to abide by my custom of granting pressmen interviews only by appointment. We'll make it at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning."

Couple, Still in Forties, Have 21 Children. Panama, Fla., Feb. 21.—A family of 21 children has been found in Santa Rosa county. The father, J. H. Taylor, is a prospector, farmer and merchant at Berrydale, 29 miles north of Milton, the county seat, and the last of his family consisted of twin boys who were born on January 21. The whole family, it is stated, live within a few miles of the old homestead, and a very singular fact is that neither of the parents is yet out of their forties. They both appear to be in the best of health, and Rev. J. Taylor, in Milton the other day, stated that they were traveling "in the Lord" to continue in his sinner of blessings upon them. They had always been happy, he said, but always considered in good health, and hoped to continue.
